

Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD):

A Patient-Centred Approach to the Provision of Care for Physicians and Other Health Care Professionals
Friday, December 2, 2016

The Michener Institute of Education at UHN: Auditorium of 222 St. Patrick Street, Toronto, Ontario, M5T 1V4

MAiD Update & Training

Morning Sessions

- A Review of Ethical Implications, Eligibility Criteria and Practical Considerations in Delivering MAiD

Afternoon Sessions

- Workshop: Assessing Grievous & Irremediable in MAiD
- Workshop: Assessing Capacity & Voluntariness in MAiD
- Panel Discussion: Impact of MAiD on Health Care and Health Care Providers

OBJECTIVES

- Describe an approach to responding to patient requests for MAiD
- Reflect on clinical and ethical challenges of MAiD
- Conduct an assessment of eligibility for MAiD
- Reflect on the impact of MAiD on health care providers and teams

WORKSHOPS

- Hands-on training
- Work through cases
- Consult with experts
- Access MAiD resources & clinical toolkit

REGISTRATION (full or half day)

<http://www.eventbrite.ca/e/medical-assistance-in-dying-a-patient-centred-approach-to-the-provision-of-care-for-physicians-and-registration-28285922957?ref=ebtnebtckt>

Safari users please search for event title on eventbrite*

MD Rate $175 (full) $110 (half)
Non-Healthcare Rate $175 (full) $110 (half)
Other Healthcare Professional Rate $150 (full) $90 (half)
Student/Resident/Fellow Rate $75 (full) $50 (half)

This is a University of Toronto CPD Accredited event.

Credits (up to): College of Family Physicians of Canada Mainpro+ 5.5 Credits or Royal College MOC 5.5 Credits

PROGRAM OUTLINE

MORNING SESSION

8:45-9:00: Introduction (Speaker: Sanjeev Sockalingam)

9:00-9:30: Ethical Principles Related to MAiD (Speaker: Jennifer Bell)

9:30-10:00: Current Legislation and Eligibility for MAiD (Speaker: Jennifer Bell)

10:00-10:15: Break

10:15-10:45: Practical Considerations in Delivering MAiD (Speaker: Madeline Li)

10:45-11:30: Responding to patient request for assisted dying (Speaker: Kim Miller)

11:30-12:00: Panel Discussion (Chair: Sanjeev Sockalingam)

12:00-1:00: Lunch*

AFTERNOON SESSION

1:00-1:55: Workshop - Assessing Grievous and Irremediable in MAiD (Speaker: Danielle Kain)

1:55-2:10: Break

2:10-2:55: Workshop - Assessing Capacity and Voluntariness (Speaker: Kathleen Sheehan)

2:55-3:40: Panel Discussion - Impact of MAiD on Health Care and Health Care Providers (Chair: Gary Rodin)

Lunch will be provided for full day registrants*

This is a U of T Accredited event and has been awarded the following credits:
The College of Family Physicians of Canada - 5.5 Mainpro+ credits
Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Canada - 5.5 Section 1 credits